An efficient technique for figuring out a price is to send out a survey to your current customers. If these customers have already purchased an book from you, ask for his or her opinion when it comes to price. Do that by making a gross sales web page for the new guide, however don't embody a price on that page. As a substitute, add plenty of hyperlinks to survey questions that ask pointed questions to aid you in assigning a value to your ebook.

One other technique is to test out prices by making a variety of duplicate gross sales pages with completely different costs on every page. Ensure your gross sales copy is precisely the same on each web page, and includes your selling-handle sentence. Then determine for every web page the conversion ratio between visitors to your site and gross sales of your book. It will tell you what your optimum value is.
