A printed book is an object you'll be able to hold in your hand, store on your bookshelf, even hand down to the next generation. It is priced on components such as paper inventory, design and production prices, and marketing.

However the truth that unites ebooks and print books is that they're composed of ideas. It's the ideas in these books which have the power to vary, or probably transform, individuals's lives.

What do you suppose an idea is value when evaluated towards the price of paper and ink?
