An efficient approach for figuring out a value is to ship out a survey to your current customers. If these clients have already bought an book from you, ask for his or her opinion when it comes to price. Do that by making a sales page for the brand new e book, but don't embrace a value on that page. Instead, add quite a few hyperlinks to survey questions that ask pointed questions to help you in assigning a value to your ebook.

One other technique is to check out costs by creating a number of duplicate gross sales pages with totally different costs on each page. Make sure that your gross sales copy is strictly the same on every page, and consists of your selling-deal with sentence. Then figure out for each web page the conversion ratio between guests to your website and sales of your book. It will tell you what your optimum price is.

In the end, for those who've written a e-book that solves a drawback or presents a new approach, your e-book will usher in each visitors and profits.
