Do this by creating a gross sales web page for the new e book, but don't embrace a price on that page. Instead, add numerous links to survey questions that ask pointed questions to assist you in assigning a price to your ebook.

One other strategy is to check out prices by creating a variety of duplicate gross sales pages with completely different costs on every page. Make sure your gross sales copy is strictly the same on each page, and contains your selling-deal with sentence. Then figure out for every web page the conversion ratio between visitors to your website and gross sales of your book. This may let you know what your optimum price is.

In the end, if you happen to've written a guide that solves a drawback or presents a brand new approach, your book will bring in each site visitors and profits. So be sure to write that selling-deal with sentence that sums up what problem your ebook solves and what the advantages of your 5 guide will probably be to the purchasers who purchase it. And then watch your market come to you!
